

Day 01:

BANGALORE - COORG

Arrive at Bangalore where you will be welcomed before transferring you to your hotel.

Coorg is on the Western Ghats. Set amidst verdant valleys, imposing mountains and teakwood forests, this is one of the most beautiful hill stations you can visit. It lies on Karnataka's south-western end, covering an area of 4,102 sq km.

Talakaveri, from where the Kaveri River originates, Nisargadhama, a man-made island and a favored holiday resort, Iruppa and Abbey Falls, Nagarhole National Park, Dubare Elephant Camp – each of these can be an adventure destination by themselves. Coorg is also famous for its huge coffee and spice estates. On arrival, check in to your hotel.

then visit Dubare elephant camp (optional) for a 3 hour experience with Elephants & experience of Elephant Grooming, feeding, Elephant Ride & Coracle Ride, return to the resort. Overnight is at Coorg

Day 02:

COORG

After breakfast, proceed for a full day sightseeing in Coorg. You are taken to Raja's seat – a well maintained garden with a great view of the hills, Abby Falls – a beautiful waterfall, Omkareshwar – the ancient temple, Talcauvery (the origin point of River Cauvery – an astoundingly beautiful place surrounded by mountains) and Bhagamandala (the point where Cauvery assumes the shape of a river). Overnight is at Coorg

Day 03:

COORG- KABINI

Drive to Kabini, one of India's most popular wildlife destinations. Surrounded by jungle landscape, a large picturesque lake, herds of elephants, and the sounds of nature. In the evening, enjoy the wildlife movie.

Day 04:

KABINI

Enjoy jungle activities (OPTIONAL) like jeep safaris and boat rides through the wildlife sanctuary. Explore at your leisure. Overnight at Kabini

Day 05:

VYTHIRI (70 km / 2 hours)

After Breakfast proceed to Wayanad (Vythiri). Wayanad name is derived from "wayalnadu" mean's land of paddy fields. Having the largest concentration of tribal population was once known as "Africa" in kerala. This is tourist's paradise of kerala & kerala's answer to Tamilnadu's Ooty or Karnataka's Coorg. Wayanad is the largest producer of pepper in the country. On the way visit Nanjungud, Banasura dam (The second largest dam in Asia) & Bhagavathi temple.

On arrival Wayanad check in the hotel. Overnight at Vythiri (Wayanad)

Day 06:

VYTHIRI

After Breakfast visit Lakkidi, the gateway to Wayanad, Pazhassiraja Museum and Art Gallery, Pookkot Lake & kuruvadeep where one would come across a variety of vegetation, some rare orchids and wild flowers. These are also haven for migratory birds. The avian life here includes hornbills, parrots and a host of butterfly species. Late in the evening return back to the hotel. Overnight is at Vythiri.

Day 07:

Vythiri – BANGALORE

Early morning after Breakfast proceed to Bangalore. Arrive after a journey of 6 hrs and proceed to the Bangalore Airport